You

You travel in italy with great safety not being an instance of a robbery, the pollice is very good & the justice is wery rigorous. the different States of italy are agreed together & render to each other every malefactor who flyng is pursu'd with amasing swiftnes from the one extreame of italy to the other. (& since the late Pope has taken from the church their priveledge of screening & harbouring rought thieves &c.) it is impossible anyone can escape. the italian is polite & Courteous when civily us'd. but revengefull & blood-thirsty when provokt & by pay ing their just due wich. is here sett down. you may make the tour without a word of dispute it would make this Volume too large to racount every article on the road. but every post house is obligd to have a tarifa or the rules of his post & the money he demands. it is printed & pasted on a board & produc'd on demand it is easy to understand & contains the just orders of the state wich must be complied with there is no danger of a demand being made of more than is just.
